GENESIS 2:15-25

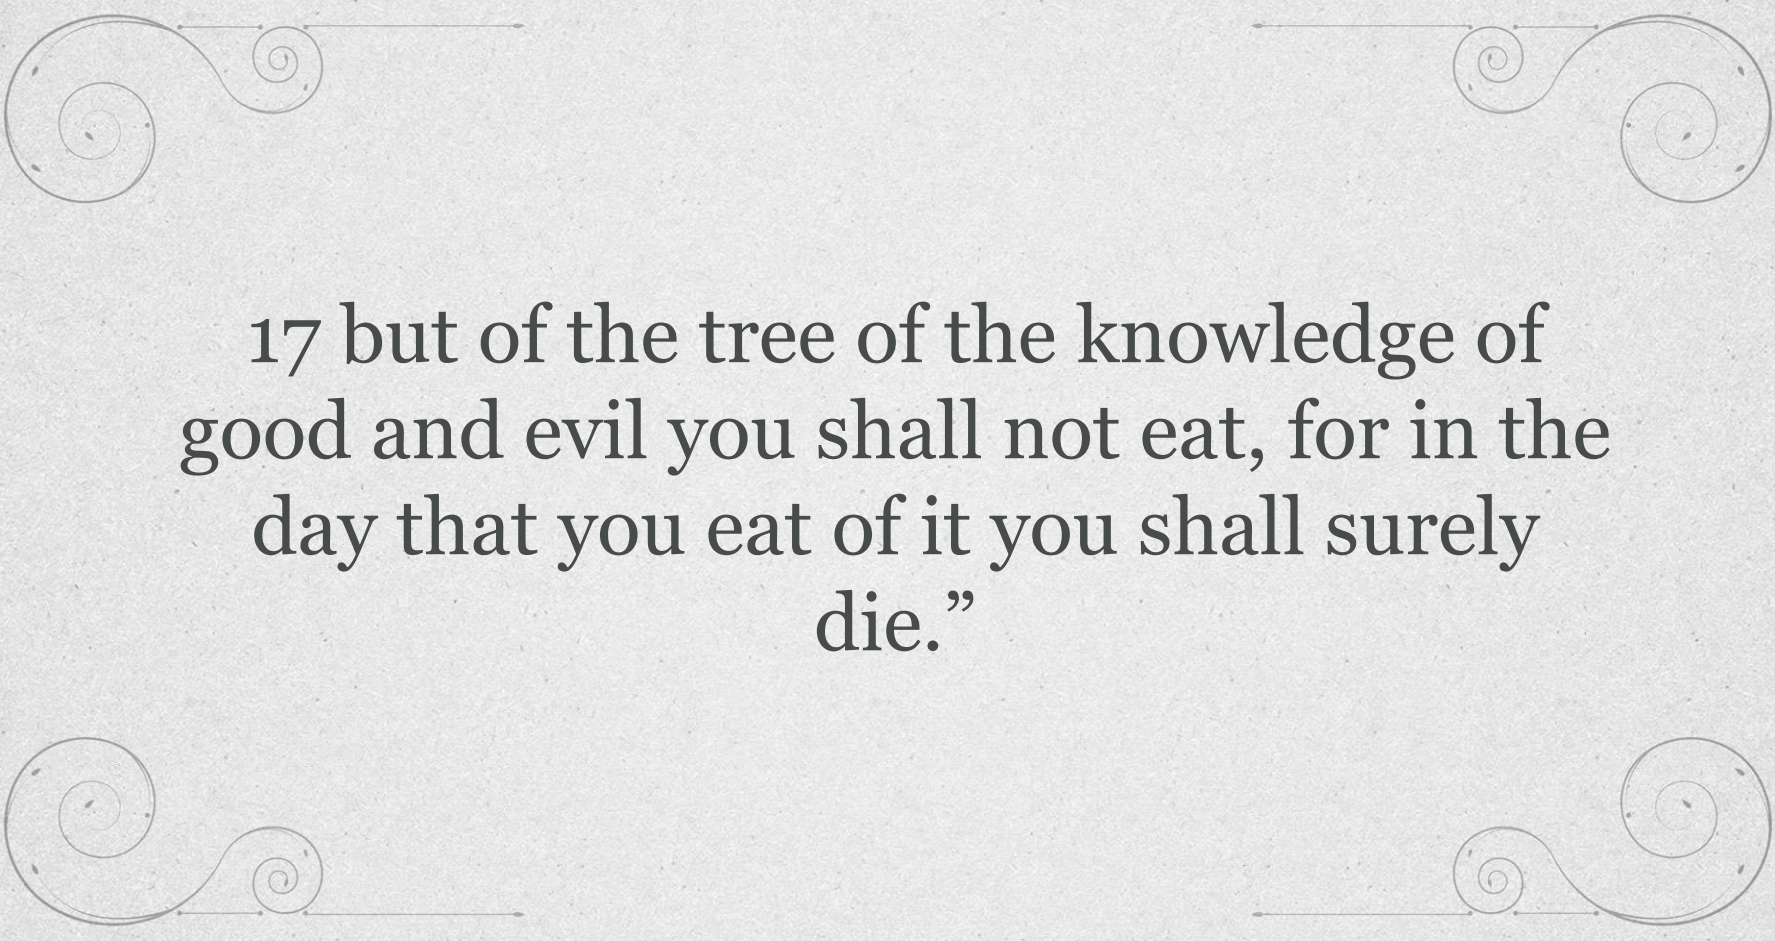

The page features four decorative corner flourishes, one in each corner. Each flourish consists of a horizontal line extending from the center towards the corner, which then curves into a series of three concentric, inward-spiraling loops. The flourishes are rendered in a light gray color against a textured, light gray background.

15 The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it.

The flourishes are positioned in the top-left, top-right, bottom-left, and bottom-right corners of the page.

17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.”

The image features a light gray background with four decorative corner flourishes. Each flourish consists of a horizontal line with an arrowhead pointing towards the center, from which a series of concentric, overlapping spirals emerge. The spirals are drawn with thin, dark lines and have a slightly irregular, hand-drawn appearance. The flourishes are positioned in the top-left, top-right, bottom-left, and bottom-right corners of the page.

18 Then the Lord God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him.”

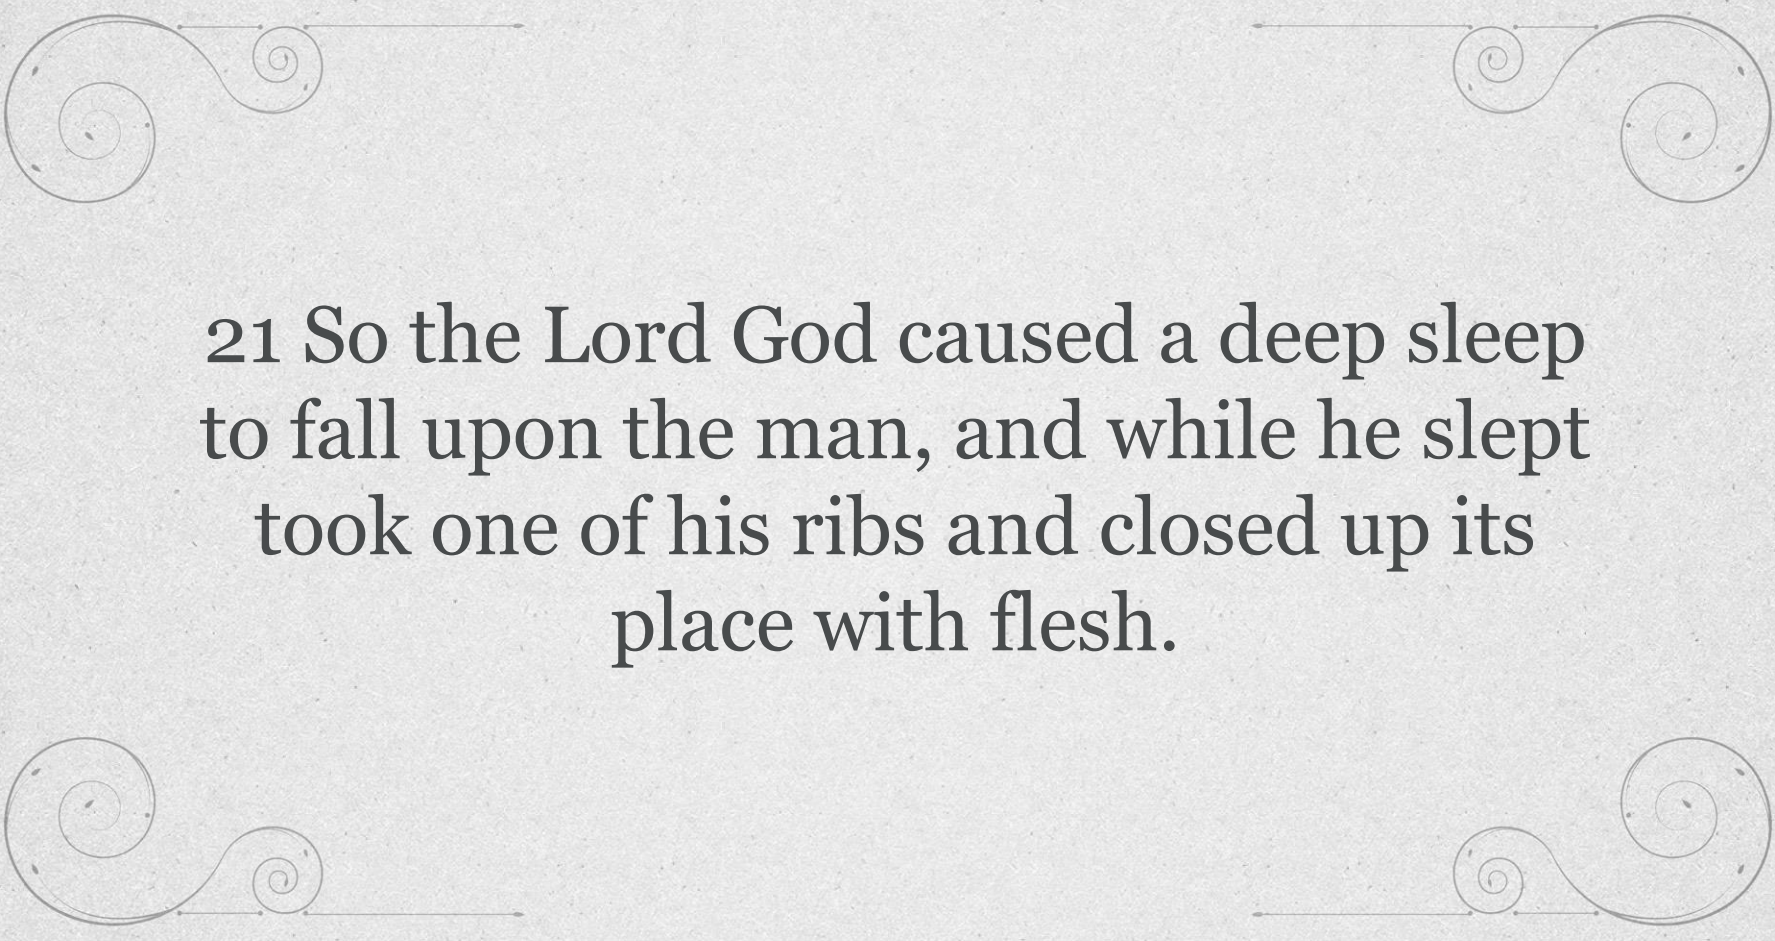

19 Now out of the ground the Lord God had formed every beast of the field and every bird of the heavens and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. And whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.

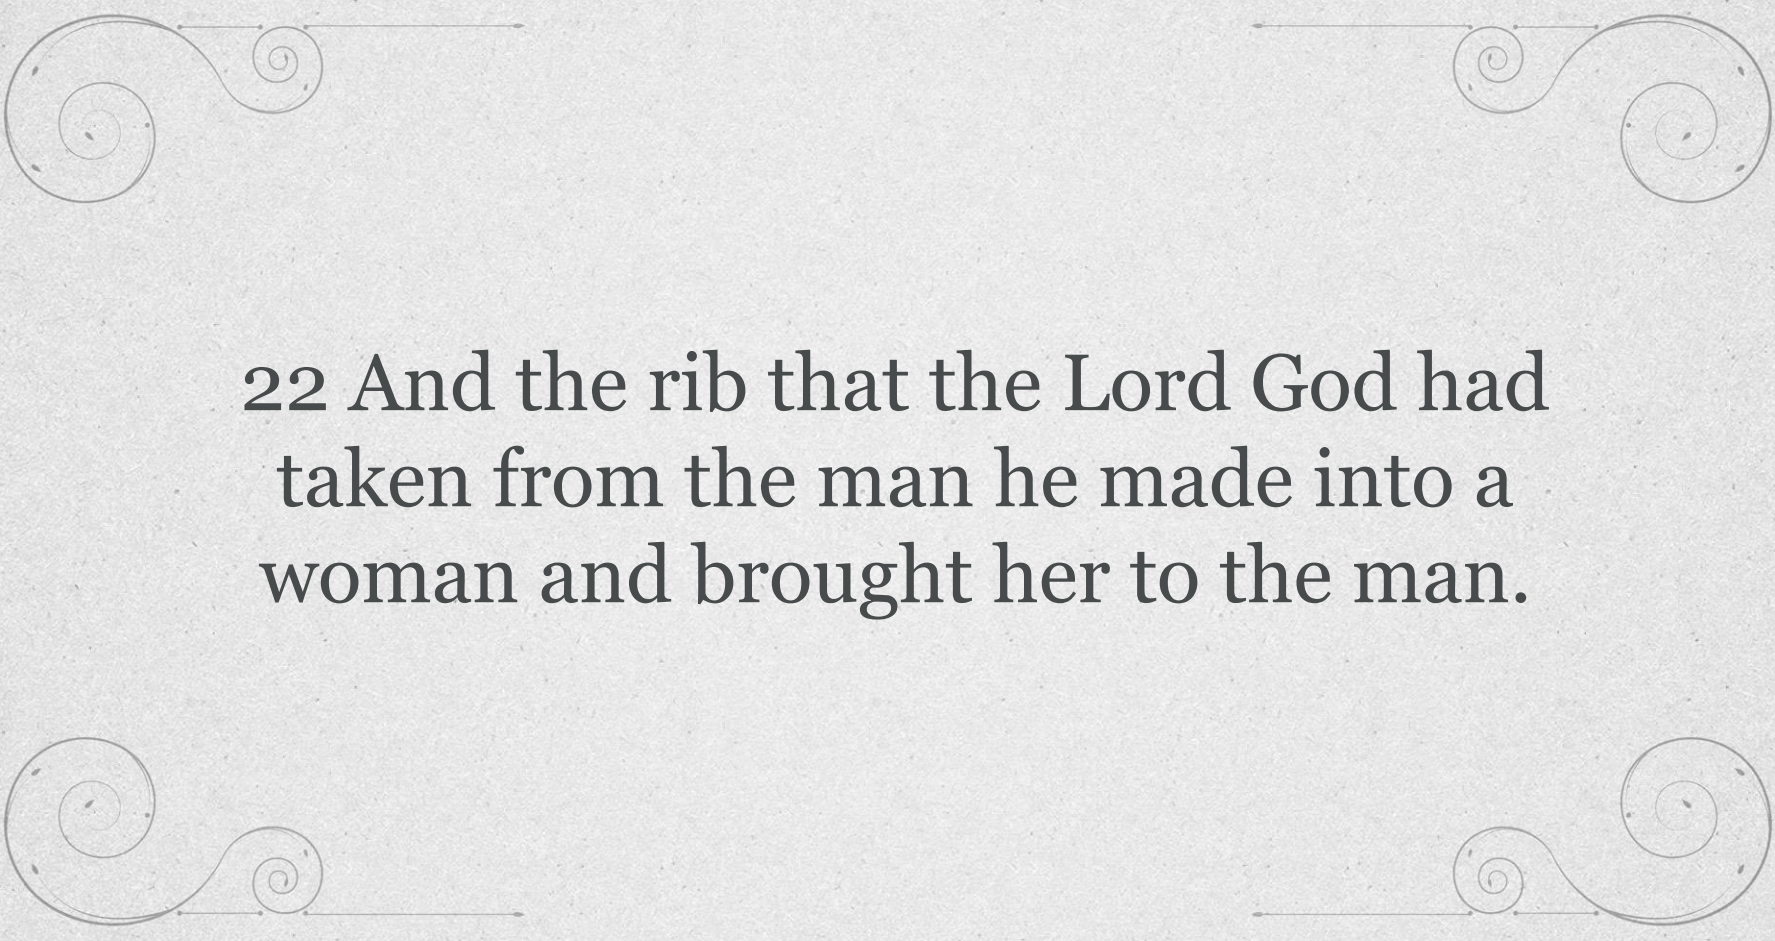

The page features four decorative corner flourishes, each consisting of a spiral line that curves and ends in a horizontal line with an arrowhead pointing towards the center of the page. These are located in the top-left, top-right, bottom-left, and bottom-right corners.

20 The man gave names to all livestock and to the birds of the heavens and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper fit for him.

21 So the Lord God caused a deep sleep
to fall upon the man, and while he slept took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh.

III. LIFE v21-25

I. PLACE v7-9

7 then the Lord God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature.

8 And the Lord God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground the Lord God made to spring up every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

II. PURPOSE v15-20

15 The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it.

16 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, “You may surely eat of every tree of the garden,

17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.”

18 Then the Lord God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him.”

II. PURPOSE v15-20

19 Now out of the ground the Lord God had formed every beast of the field and every bird of the heavens and brought them to the man to see what he would call them.

And whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.

20 The man gave names to all livestock and to the birds of the heavens and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper fit for him.
