C. Obedience – what are they doing ch planting Elden

"One thing powerful with Disciple Making Movement (DMM) is that it is obedience-based discipleship. It is based on the authority of Scripture and every time you read the Scripture you must obey it. This is how people become conformed to the image of Christ and sanctified. They are not just reading the Bible for information. They are reading the Bible to get transformed." - Iranian Church Leader Sept 11, 2019

D. Do it your way - gifts hobbies, talents, interests, personality,

Conclusion:

I want you to ask yourself the following questions in regards to today's message:

- “Am I listening to God's voice of truth?”
- “Do I have an older Christian who speaks God's truth into my life on a regular basis? If not, whom shall I ask to begin doing this in my life?”
- “Am I currently investing in a younger believer's life with my time and with God's Word? If not, with whom shall I begin doing this?”
- “Is this younger believer beginning to reach and teach others? If not, please show me, Lord, what You want me to do.”

1. Formal Discipleship

The background of the slide is a dark, starry night sky. The stars are small, white dots scattered across the dark blue and black expanse. At the bottom of the image, there is a silhouette of a mountain range with rolling hills and valleys, rendered in a dark, almost black color. The overall aesthetic is serene and contemplative.

1. Formal Discipleship
 2. Informal Discipleship

- The background of the slide features a serene landscape of rolling mountains under a deep blue, starry night sky. The mountains are silhouetted against a lighter, hazy blue sky, with some peaks appearing to have a light mist or snow. The stars are small, white dots scattered across the dark blue expanse, creating a sense of vastness and tranquility.

2 Timothy 2:2 (NASB)

2 The things which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, entrust these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

“me” = Paul

“you” = Timothy

“faithful men”

“others”

“And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”
2 Timothy 2:2

Entrust these things to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.
