

A woman with long, wavy brown hair, wearing a long-sleeved, button-down blue dress, stands in a dark, desolate landscape. She is looking back over her right shoulder towards a city in the distance that is engulfed in flames and smoke. Her arms are outstretched, and she appears to be holding onto something or someone just out of frame on the right. The scene is dramatic and somber, with a dark, overcast sky.

Remember Lot's Wife

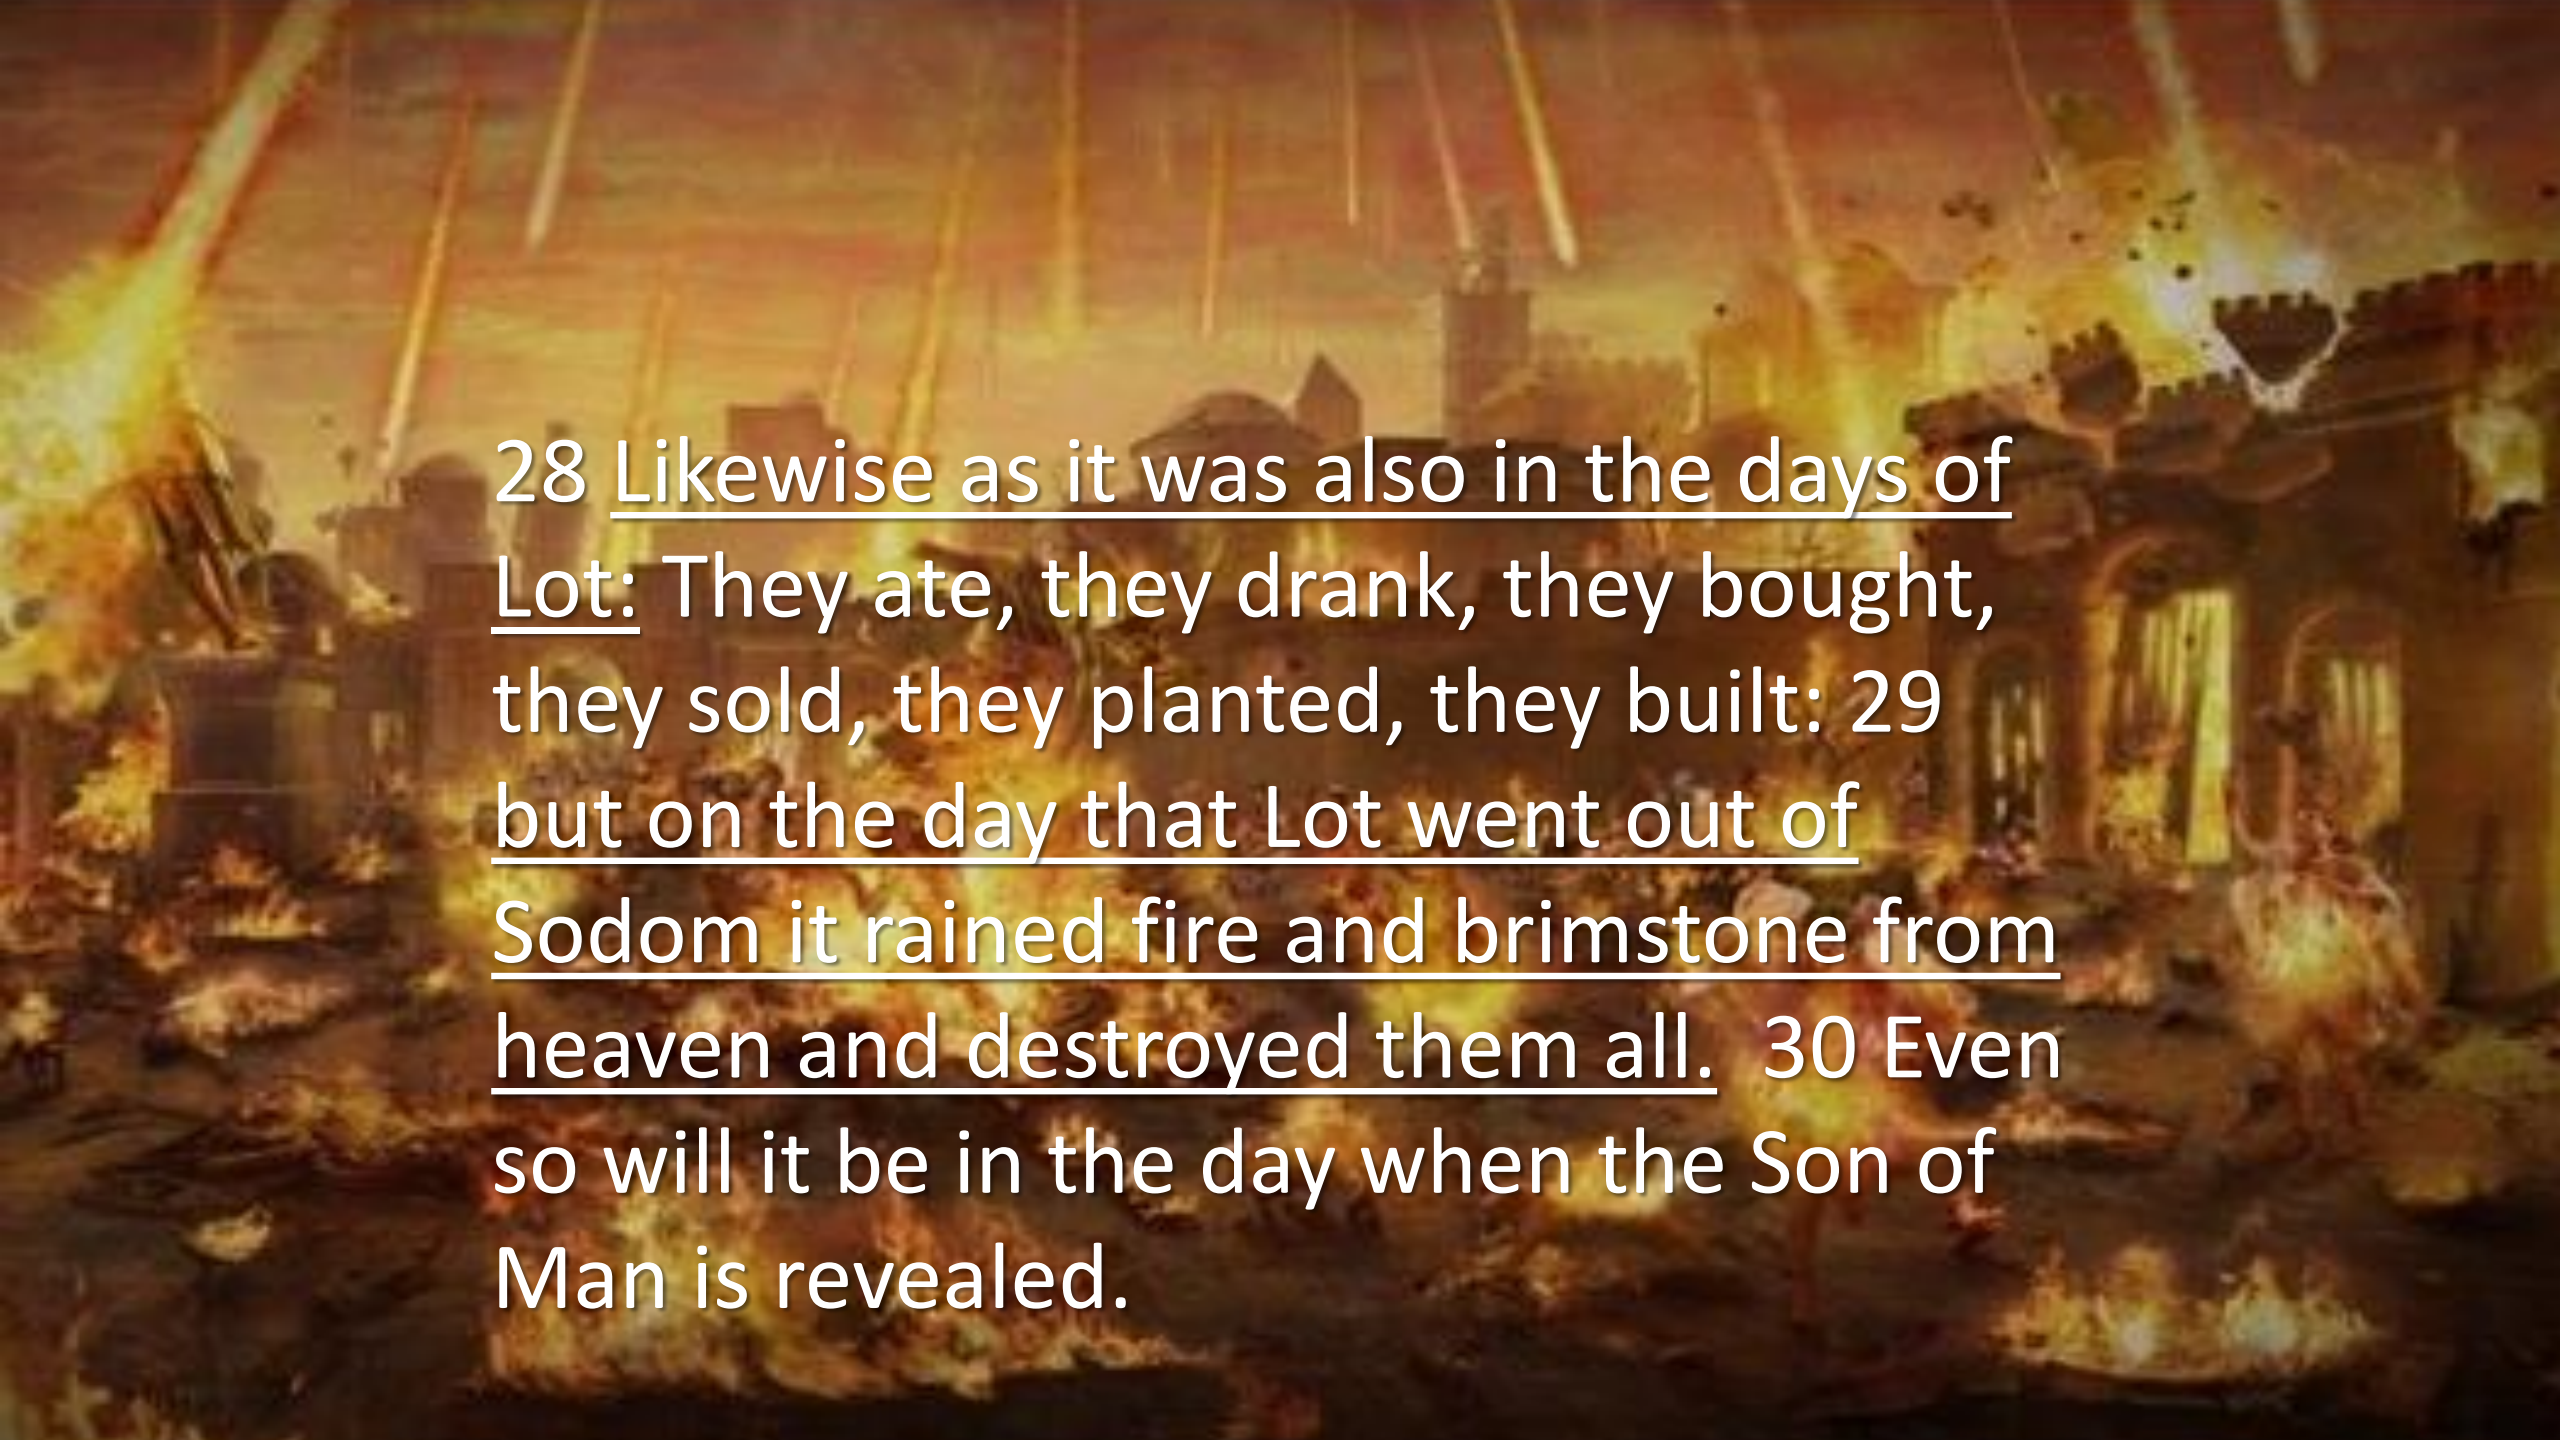

Luke 17:26-33 NKJV

A dramatic scene of a wooden ark on a stormy sea. The ark is a large, multi-story wooden structure with a gabled roof, floating on dark, turbulent water. Several windows on the upper levels are illuminated from within, casting a warm orange glow. The sky is dark and stormy, with a large, bright lightning bolt striking down on the right side. The overall atmosphere is one of impending danger and divine judgment.

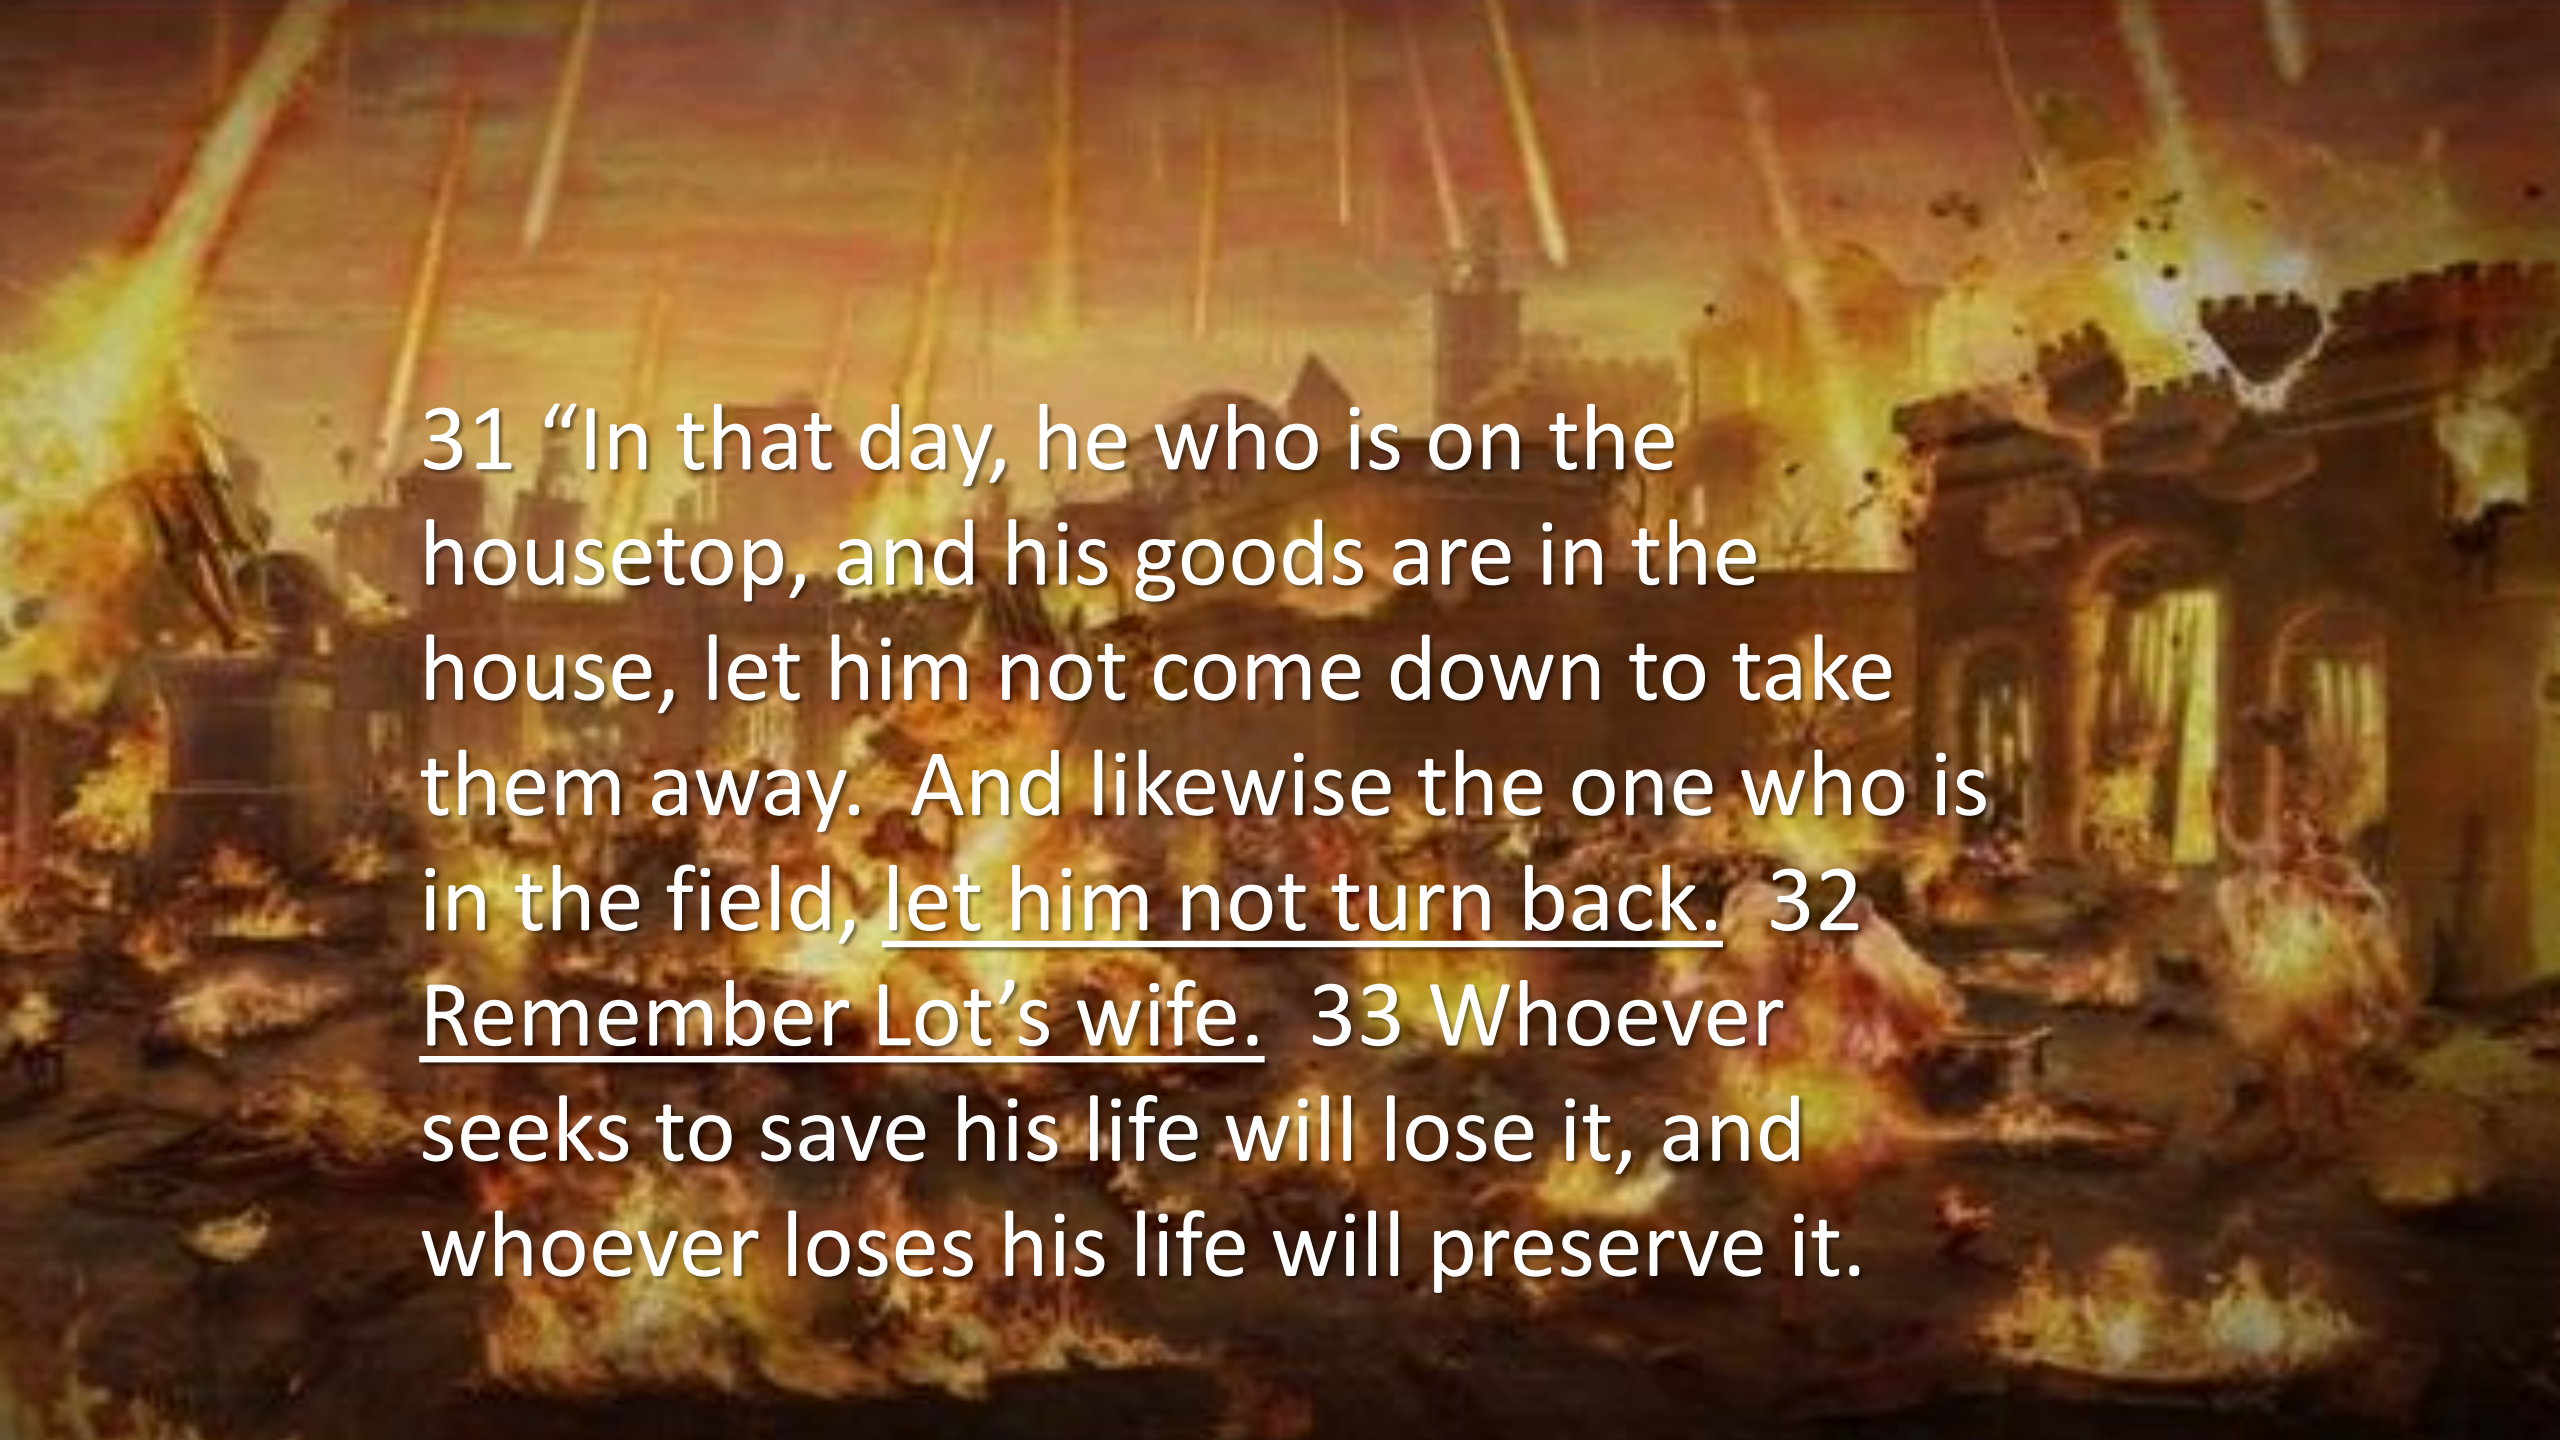

Luke 17:26-27 NKJV

26 And as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man:

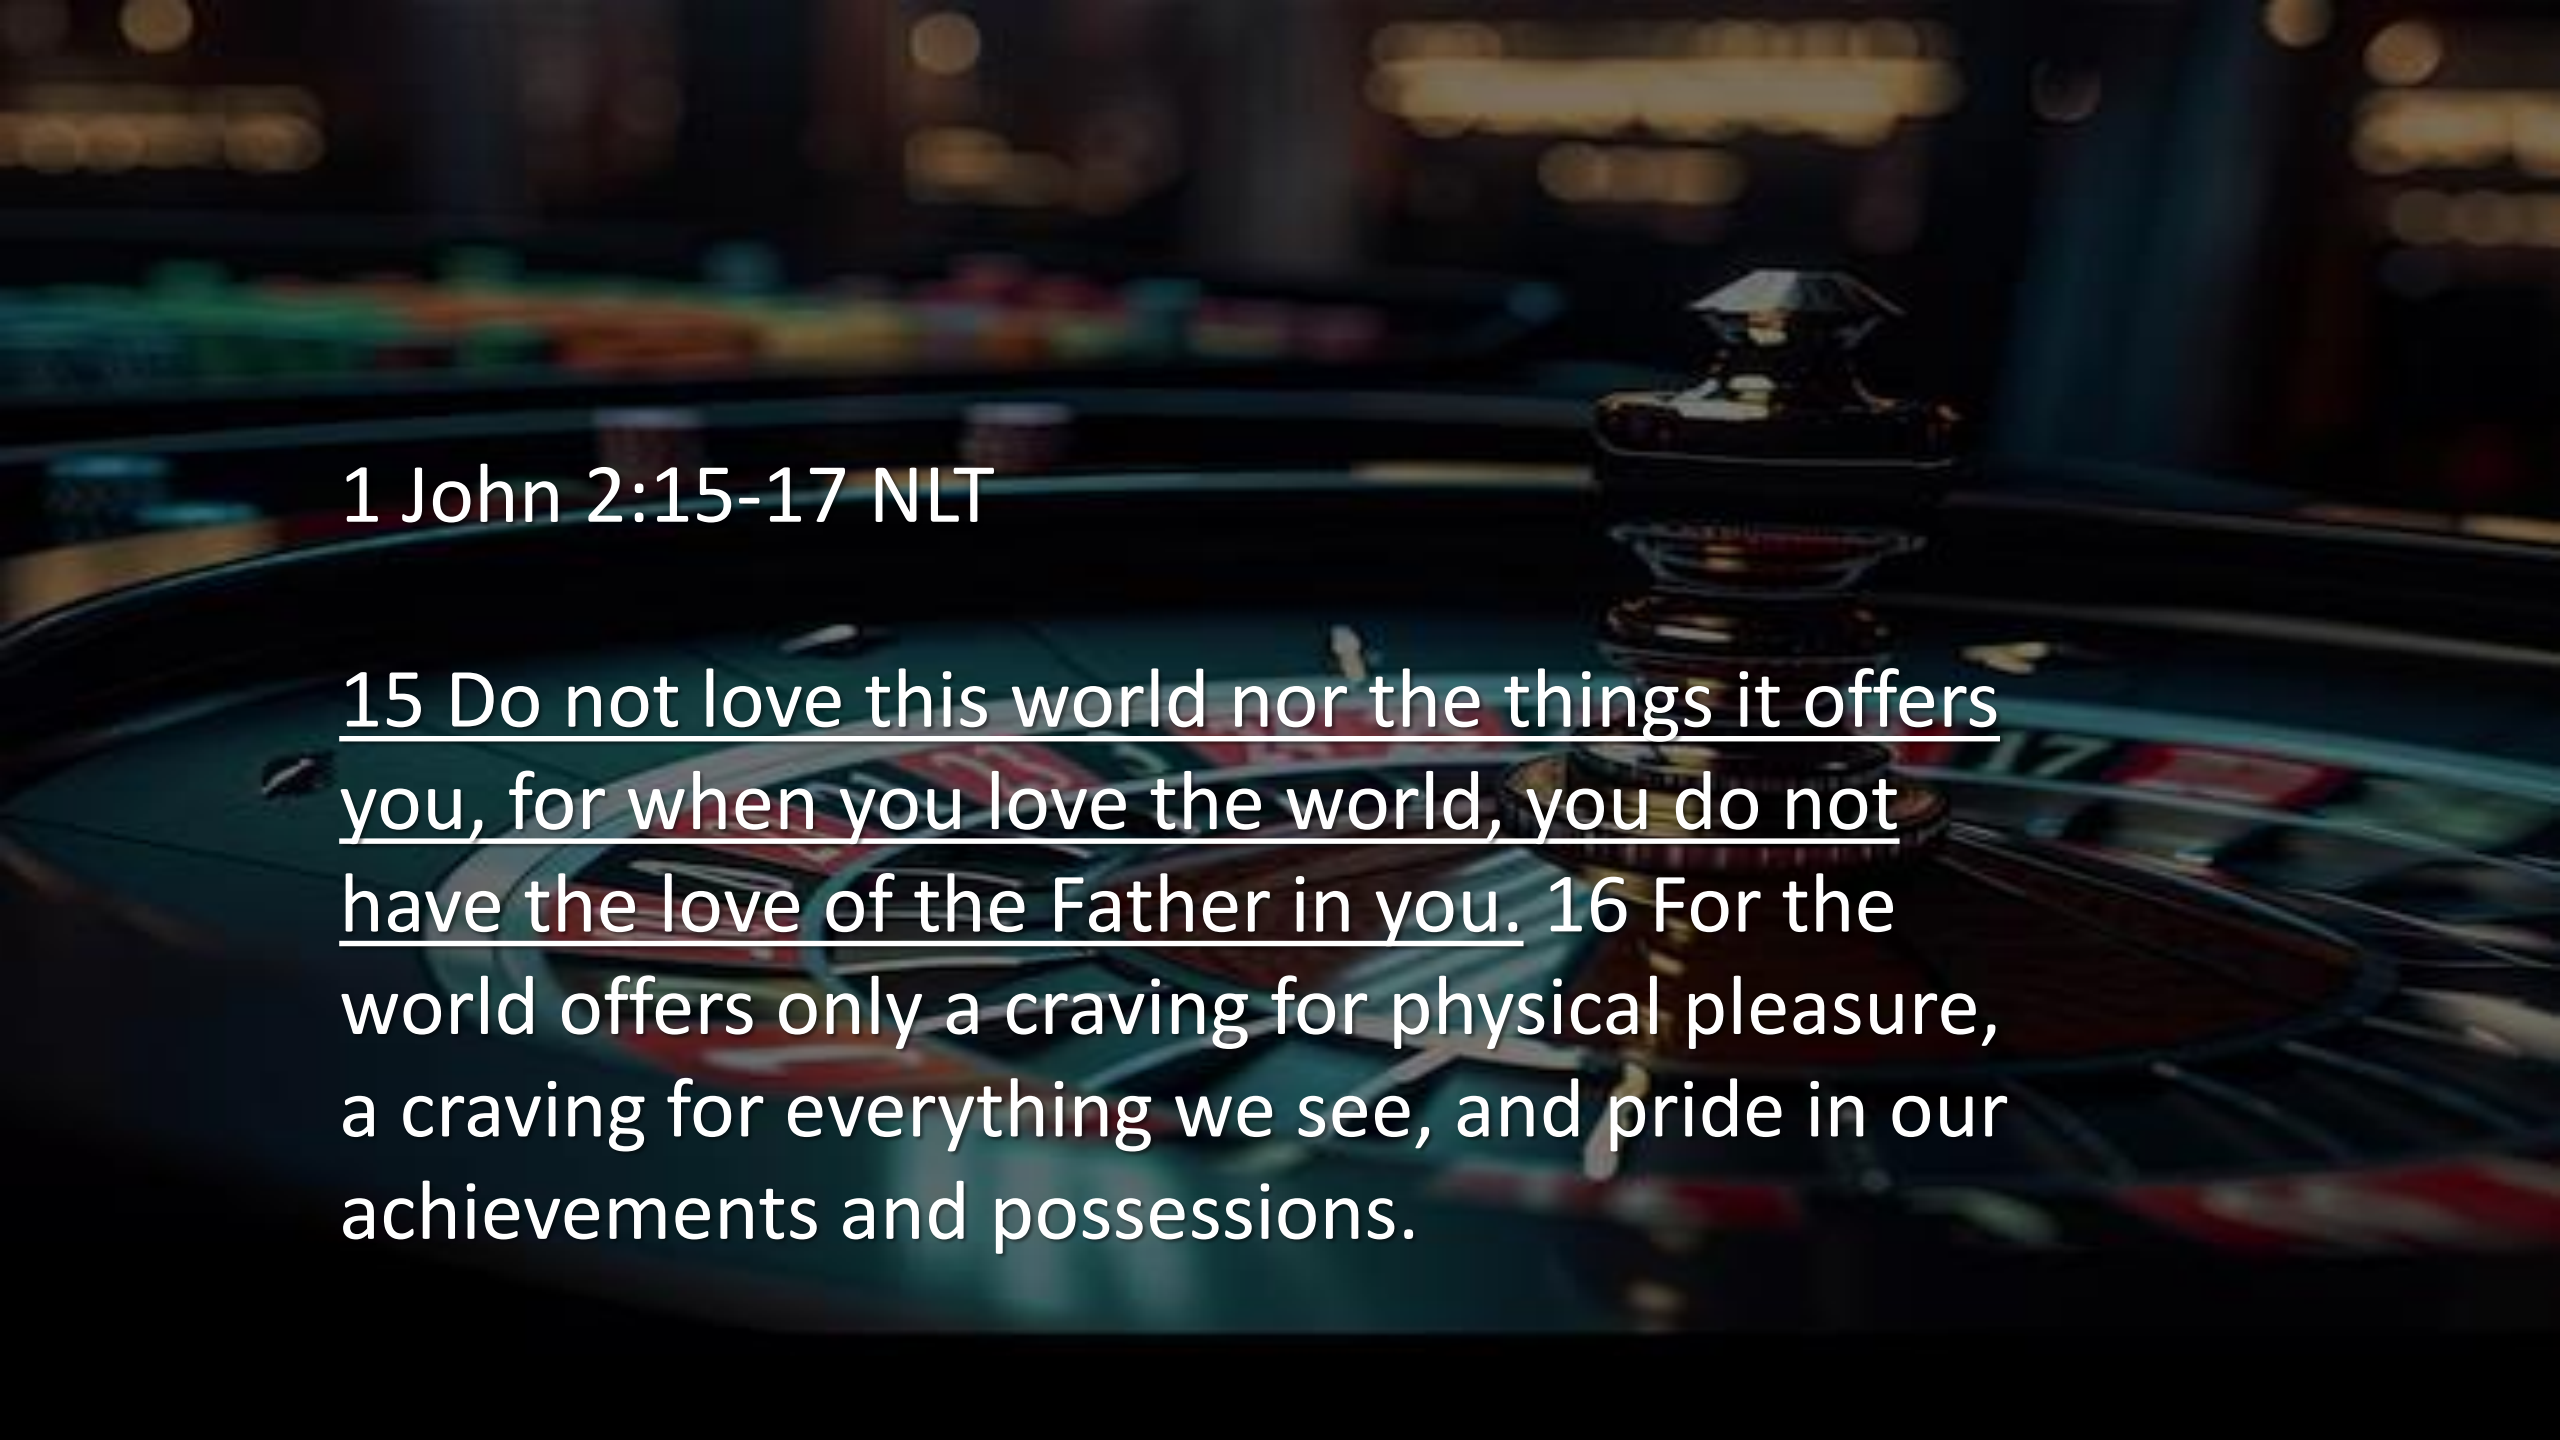

27 They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built: 29 but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. 30 Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed.

31 “In that day, he who is on the housetop, and his goods are in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who is in the field, let him not turn back. 32

1 John 2:15-17 NLT

15 Do not love this world nor the things it offers you, for when you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you. 16 For the world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions.

These are not from the Father, but are from this world. 17 And this world is fading away, along with everything that people crave. But anyone who does what pleases God will live forever.

Then he said, I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit...vs 17
therefore I hated life; Ecclesiastes 2:11-17

for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise
the other. You cannot serve God and mammon”*

GOD

Matthew 6:24 NKJV

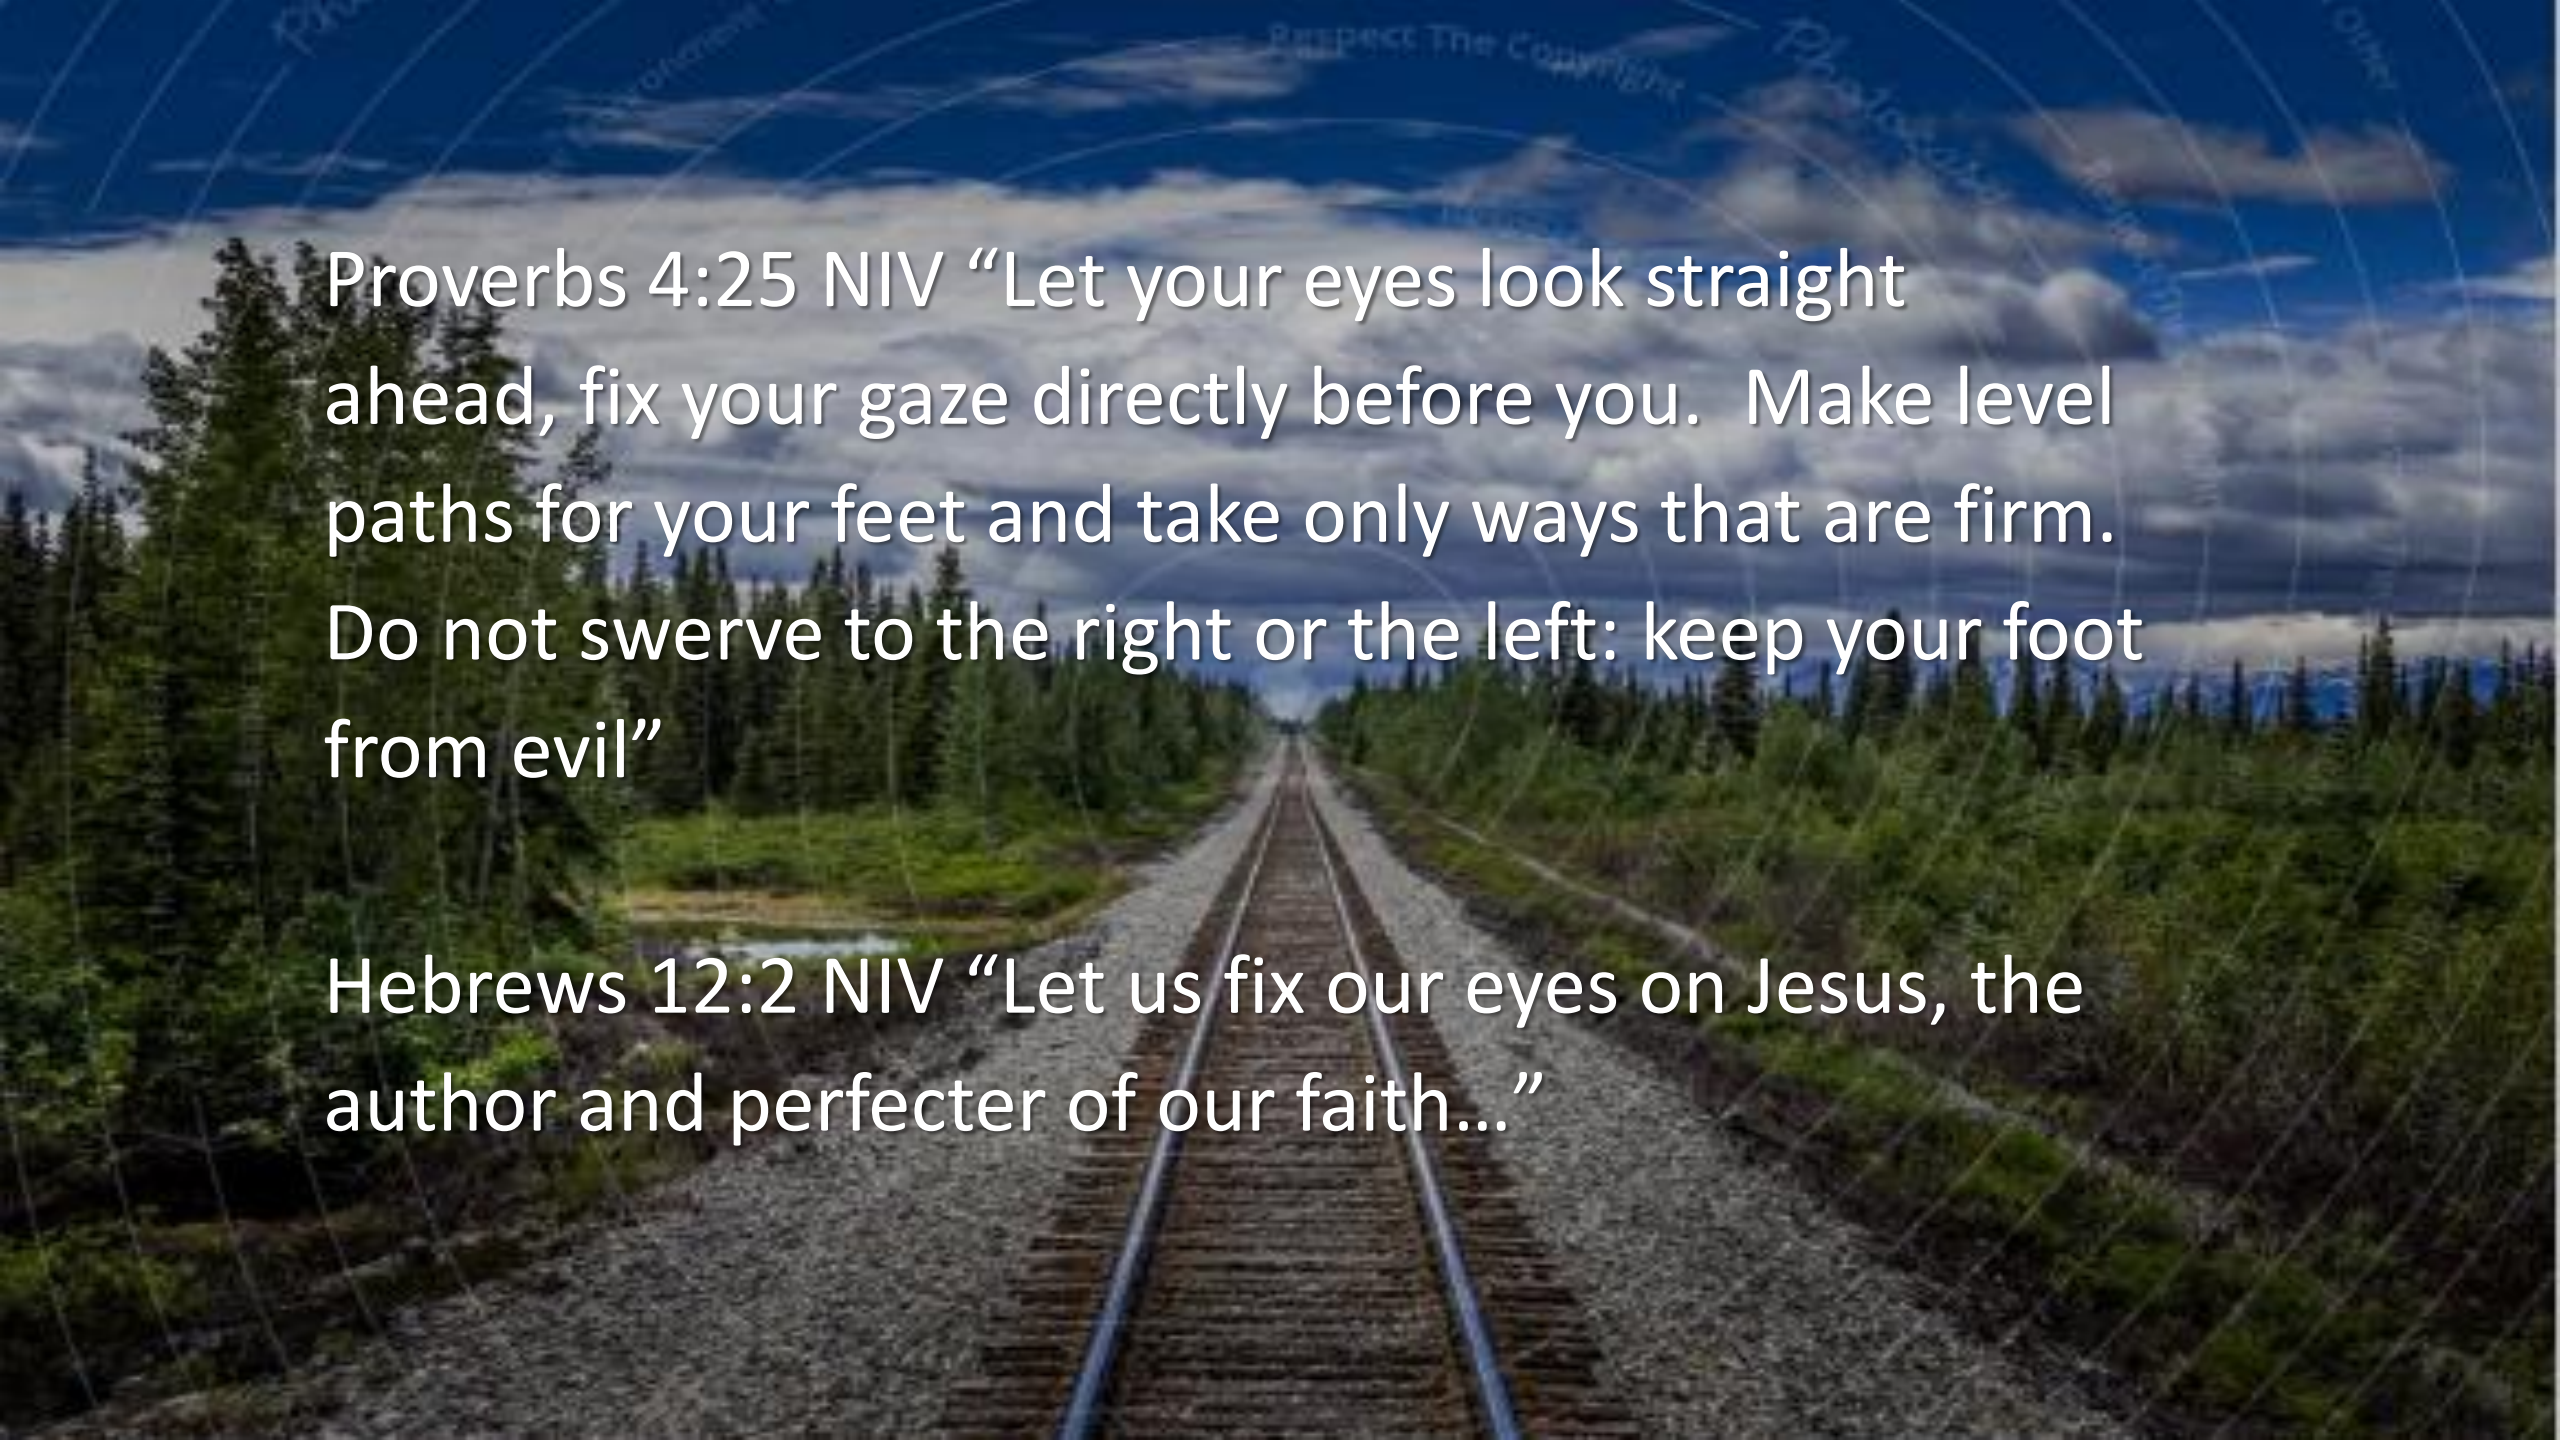

A dramatic, apocalyptic landscape painting. The scene is dominated by a city in flames, with thick black smoke billowing into a dark, stormy sky. The city is built on a hillside, and the fire is concentrated in the lower right quadrant, with bright orange and yellow flames reaching upwards. The sky is filled with dark, heavy clouds, and a bright light source, possibly the sun or moon, is visible on the left side, casting a glow over the scene. The overall atmosphere is one of destruction and divine judgment. In the foreground, there are dark, rocky outcrops and some faint figures of people, suggesting a desolate and terrifying environment.

Isaiah 13:9-11 “For see, the day of the Lord is coming- the terrible day of His fury and fierce anger. The land will be made desolate, and all the sinners destroyed with it...I, the Lord, will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their sin.”

2 Peter 3:10 “But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.”

V 17 ...since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also FALL from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked; v 13 ...we look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

A long, straight railway track stretches into the distance through a forest under a cloudy sky. The track is flanked by dense green trees and shrubs. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, and the overall scene is peaceful and serene.

Proverbs 4:25 NIV “Let your eyes look straight ahead, fix your gaze directly before you. Make level paths for your feet and take only ways that are firm. Do not swerve to the right or the left: keep your foot from evil”

Hebrews 12:2 NIV “Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith...”

- Luke 9:62 KJV “No man, having put his hand to the plough, and LOOKING BACK, is fit for the kingdom of God”

Lust of the Eyes

The pride of life

1 John 2:16

2 Peter 2:6-7 NKJV Lot was oppressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked (for that righteous man, dwelling among them, tormented his righteous soul from day to day by seeing and hearing their lawless deeds.)

"Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with dissipation, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you unexpectedly like a trap. For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth. Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man." Luke 21:34-36 NIV
